I am having a short medical procedure on Thursday, but am not sure what my day will be like. Would Friday AM work?

Best,

Jess

Perry,

Thanks for following up. I was able to connect with our client briefly, but we are also now digesting the Court's short order issued today and I need to discuss that with our client as well. Given that our motion is no longer currently pending and your opposition is no longer due tomorrow, may I get back to you tomorrow after I reconnect with our client?

Best,

Jess M. Krannich

I received another voicemail from you late on Friday, and it sounds like you were tied up much of the day. Is there a good time today for you to talk?

Mr. Oldham,

Since serving our responses and objections and our cover letter explaining our client's position and the authority in support of it, we have not heard from you as to any disputes, follow up, or requests to meet and confer. Please let us know by the close of business today, Mountain Standard Time, whether your client's subpoena to our client is withdrawn in light of the objections and authority we served upon you or if it is something your client still intends to pursue.
